

CLEAN CITIES, HOW DO WE GET THERE?

Sacramento Region's Model Ordinance Forum

June 10, 2004 – 11:00 am – 2:30 pm

KVIE Channel 6 – 2595 Capitol Oaks Drive, Sacramento

Who will be there?

- Valeria Turella, Assemblymember Dario Frommer's legislative analyst (invited)
- Mike Tollstrup, California Air Resources Board
- Tom Christopfk, APCO Placer County
- Stacey Heaton, California Trucking Association
- California Energy Commission
- Bob Summersett, City of Sacramento
- Becky Wood, Teichert Aggregates

What will they tell us?

Three Model Air Quality Ordinances/Policies are proposed for the Sacramento Region. Clean Air regulations are also being proposed by the State of California. These proposed ordinances and regulations are:

- Idling reduction for heavy-duty vehicles
- Proactive "green" contracting by government agencies
- Low-emission fleet program for government agencies

To read the ordinances, please go to <http://www.airquality.org/modelord/index.shtml>. Find out what similar regulations are being proposed for the State of California. Learn about proactive activities currently being employed by local agencies and businesses.

This workshop is structured to inform you about how our public agencies and businesses can work together to make real, tangible improvements to clean our air.

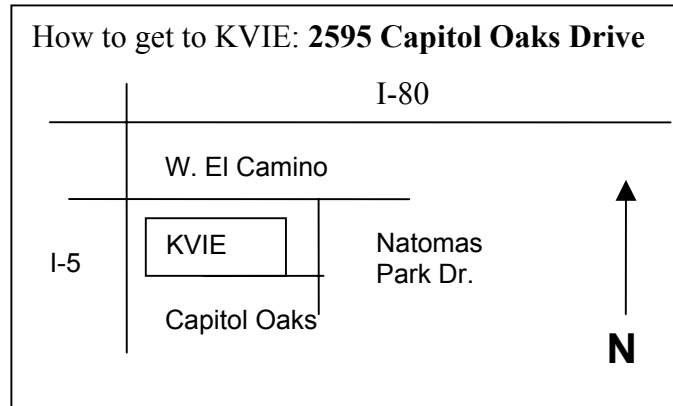

What equipment will be there?

We will have a variety of technologies on display and product representatives to help you help us to clean the air!

RSVP?

Absolutely!!! Space is limited. Lunch will be sponsored by the Greater Sacramento Regional Clean Air Coalition. Each attendee must RSVP to Jill Egbert (530) 757-5235 or jme3@pge.com with your name, affiliation, phone number, fax and e-mail address.
